PARCEL POST EXTENSIONS

Postmaster General Burleson Announces Many Changes to Take Place August 15—Increase the Maximum Weight From 11 to 20 Pounds

Washington, July 21.—Plans for the extension, improvement and reduction in rates of the parcel post have been announced by Postmaster General Burleson. The changes, which are to become effective August 15, include an increase from 11 pounds to 20 pounds in the maximum weight of parcels; a partial reduction in the postage rates in the first and second zones; and the abandonment of the parcel post map as a means of computing rates and the substitution for it of a rate chart individualized to every postoffice in the United States. The plans contemplate the purchase of a large number of automobiles to be used exclusively for the delivery of parcel post matter.

While, for the present, the maximum weight limit of 20 pounds and the reduction in rates will apply only to the first and second zones, from any given postoffice—a distance of about 150 miles—the changes directed today constitute the first long step towards a universal extension of the system and a general reduction in the rates of postage or parcel matter. "It is my expectation and belief," said Postmaster General Burleson, "that eventually—and it may be fifteen or twenty years—the postal service will handle practically all of the small package transportation business in the United States. The maximum weight limit, extended now from 11 to 20 pounds, I expect to see increased to 100 pounds and experience may demonstrate the practicability of handling the postal business at even lower rates than we now propose. I appreciate fully the sentiment for an increase in the weight limit and a reduction in rates to all zones, but it is necessary for us, in a sense, to feel our way. For that reason we have made the changes proposed apply only to the first and second zones."

Mr. Burleson announced the changes as follows: "The first zone shall include the territory within the local delivery of any office and the first zone rate of postage will apply to all parcel post matter deposited at any office for local delivery or for delivery by city carrier or on rail routes emanating from that postoffice."

"The second zone shall include the remainder of what is now the first zone, together with the present second zone, and shall include all the units of area located in whole or in part within a radius of approximately 150 miles from any given postoffice. "The rate of postage on parcels weighing in excess of four ounces in the proposed first zone will be reduced from 5 cents for the first pound and one cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof, to 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional two pounds or fraction thereof, and the rate for the second zone will be reduced from 5 cents for the first pound and 3 cents for each additional pound or 6 cents for the first pound and 4 cents for each additional pound or fraction thereof, to 5 cents for the first pound and 1 cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof."

"The maximum weight of parcel post packages will be increased from eleven pounds to twenty pounds, the increase of weight to apply only to the first and second zones. No change has been made in the size or form of the package."

BALL FANS IN A RIOT

When "Bloomer Girls" Are Found to Be Men in Disguise—The Angry Mob Wages War on the Young Female Impersonators

Washington, July 21.—One policeman in a hospital, two others are nursing bruises and awaiting new uniforms, and part of the Union League baseball park is a wreck to-day as the result of a Sunday baseball game, when 4000 enthusiasts discovered that a team of "bloomer girls" were a team of men in disguise. The team were taken to a train and police protection arrived. A half hour before the storm the manager of the "girls" acquired the gate receipts and had disappeared. The team was so successful here four weeks ago that it returned for a second appearance, the opposing team being an amateur organization from Laurel, Md. The trouble began when the "girl" centerfielder, a husky young blonde, threw a ball from deep center to home plate, catching the runner. The spectators grew suspicious.

A moment later a boy slipped up behind the supposed divinity at third base and gave her golden locks a vigorous pull. They came away, revealing a chunky young man with an elaborate makeup ending just above his eyebrows. The team fled through a storm of bottles and bricks to the shelter of the clubhouse where the police massed.

The crowd then stormed the ticket windows demanding their money back, venting their ire on the park property. Several persons were hurt and a number of arrests were made.

NELSON TO TEACH AT THE ACADEMY

During the coming year at Weber academy, Prof. N. L. Nelson, formerly with B. Y. U. at Provo, will have charge of the English department and the history classes will be in charge of William E. Terry, formerly a member of the Weber academy faculty. According to Apostle David O. McKay, president of the supervisory board of the academy, the reorganization in the L. D. S. school system throughout the state, as decided upon at a recent conference of officials and teachers in Salt Lake, will not affect Weber academy except in the matter of text-books.

The Ogden institution is now rated equally with B. Y. U., the L. D. S. at Salt Lake and B. Y. C. at Logan.

OFFICIAL BEAUTY TITLE CONTEST

Washington, July 20.—Who is to be the beauty of the new administration is the question which is occupying officialdom. Mrs. Huntington Wilson was the Helen of the past administration and her place as official beauty is being eagerly contested for. Here are the leading aspirants: Mrs. John E. Osborne, wife of the assistant secretary of state, dark eyes and hair, clear-cut features and a graceful, slender figure.

Mrs. Dudley Field Malone, wife of the third assistant secretary of state, Irish type, black hair, blue eyes, sparkling with mirth and good humor.

Mrs. Timothy Ansberry, golden hair, oval contour, large blue eyes and a superb figure.

JUDGE PARKER HITS BRYAN AND TEDDY

Cedar Point, O., July 20.—(Special)—The opponents of present day "progressivism" had their outing here when Judge Alton B. Parker of New York, one time Democratic candidate for president, told what he thought of Roosevelt and Bryan in a speech before the Ohio bar association. He went out of his way to hit at the present secretary of state's beliefs and declared some of Roosevelt's utterances treasonable. He declared that had Roosevelt chosen to succeed himself as president in 1908 the country would have suffered a revolution in form of government.

"A striking illustration of hysterical doctrine," he said, "is to be seen in the effort for free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. We know now that the accelerators of this movement were in ambush behind their mountains of silver, the value of which it was their purpose to double."

In referring to a speech made by Roosevelt at Harrisburg, Pa., in which the colonel said what is needed is an increase in the power of the federal government, Judge Parker said that the colonel's statement was a "treasonable utterance."

"Treasonable," he says.

"It proposes a rebellion against the government as created by the people," said Judge Parker. "We know that"

out of it all grew the antagonism on the part of that chief executive toward the courts which subsequently found expression in public utterances. "Had he succeeded himself in 1908, long before the end of his term the majority of the members of the United States supreme court would have been of his own selection. Who, knowing him and his methods, can doubt that he would have filled those positions with men he believed of like mind as himself in respect to the centralization of power in the federal government with the president as the steward of public welfare?"

"Had this breeder of power been nominated in 1908 he would have been elected, and who can say, in the light of votes cast, that with the additional convention delegates his presidency would have assured, he would not have been elected last year?"

Warns Against Socialism.

"Verily, brethren, we have barely escaped a revolution in our form of government—that, too, in our very infancy when measured by the lives of nations."

"Multitudes are becoming addicted to the imbibing of the restless mixture of Socialism, anarchy and sedition dispersed by those who seek to lead the industrial class into violence and trouble."

"Under the leadership of Haywood—who has been repudiated by the national executive committee of the Socialist party—in Lawrence last year and Paterson this, the protection the law affords to individuals desiring to work was openly flaunted."

TEXAS SENATOR HAS NERVOUS COLLAPSE

Senator Culberson.

Senator Culberson of Texas is in retirement because of a nervous breakdown. His physicians say he will not be able to take part in any of the deliberations of the special session. His vote, however, will not be lost to the Democrats as he is paired with De Pont of Delaware, a Republican. Senator Culberson has expressed his hearty approval of the Underwood tariff bill in its present form.

GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP.

Chicago, July 21.—One hundred and fifty golfers are billed to start in the elimination round of the fifteenth annual amateur championship tournament of the Western Golf association at the Homewood Country club today. The round will be at eighteen holes. The lowest 64 scorers will be eligible to compete in the qualifying round at 18 holes tomorrow morning, in which the lowest 32 scorers will qualify for the first round of the championship to be staged in the afternoon.

The thirty-two players who fail to qualify will continue match play for the vice president's cup. The sixteen players defeated in the first round of the championship will continue at match play for the president's trophy. In addition to these trophies the men who fail to reach the first 64 places in the elimination round will be eligible for play for the directors and committee's cups if their association has decreed permits to participate in these events. Sixteen will qualify in each of these flights.

COMMAND OFFICERS.

Washington, July 21.—Letters of commendation have been sent by the navy department to Commander A. M. Cook, Lieutenant Commander C. P. Huff and Ensign M. G. Robertson who, according to Captain George W. Kline, commanding officer of the battleship Idaho, were the three officers who contributed most to the success of the vessel in winning the trophy for gunnery practice last year.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 21.—On a description furnished by the police of Stockton, Cal., where he is said to have committed a murder a year and a half ago, Alexander Mouratidis, 36 years old, is being held by the police pending word from the authorities of Stockton.

The man murdered was B. Dimitrakas. Two months after he had disappeared his body was found in some bushes with three bullet wounds in it. No money was found, though Dimitrakas had $400 when he left his home.

DEATH FROM POLO.

London, July 21.—Although polo is popularly regarded as a dangerous game to play, the first fatality in connection with the game here, where it has been played regularly since 1871, is just recorded. Lieutenant Harmon died yesterday from injuries received when his pony threw him in a match at Ranelagh on Thursday. There have been only three other polo fatalities in the entire history of the game in England.

CONFESSES CRIME: RETURNS MONEY

Philadelphia, July 20.—Conscience-stricken with $51.75 in funds of the American Express company in his pockets, Alexander Woods, the embezzling express messenger of East St. Louis, could not resist confession today when he saw the police load a disorderly man in the patrol wagon. He walked over to the sergeant and begged to be sent to the prison, as he said he had stolen the money. He was wanted in St. Louis, he said, and could not stay any longer, because he felt that he had sufficiently
